WHAT IS HALAL TO EAT? 2

Even if the animal is slaughtered in a Halal way, we are not allowed to consume these parts!

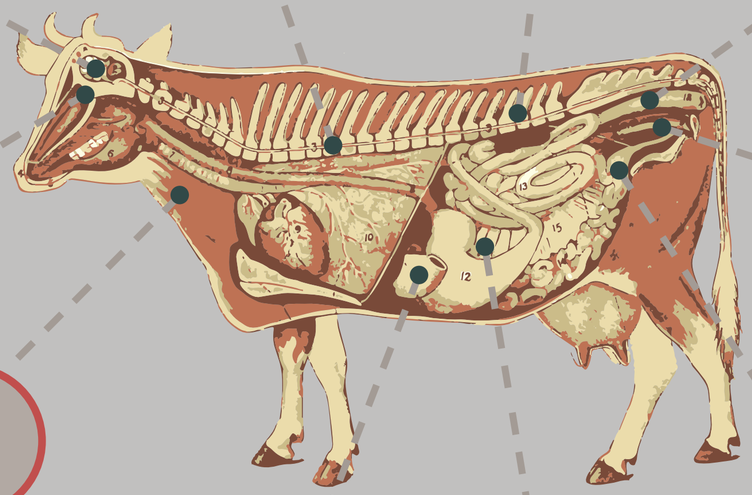
HARAM PARTS OF A HALAL ANIMAL

SPINAL CORD

VAGUS NERVES

ALL GLANDS

THE URINE & THE EXCREMENT



EYEBALLS

REPRODUCTIVE ORGANS

BLOOD

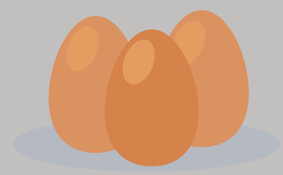
PLACENTA

SPLEEN

GALLBLADDER

the REMAINING blood in the Halal slaughtered animal is Halal if it becomes dissolved in the food.

DAIRY PRODUCTS & EGGS



ARE HALAL IF THEIR SOURCE IS A HALAL ANIMAL

IDENTIFY UNKNOWN EGG

CHECK ITS TWO POLES

If they're unequal in shape, as the egg of a chicken, then it is Halal

If both poles are similar, the egg is Haram

SOME HALAL ANIMALS MAY BECOME HARAM

For example, if the halal animal suckled from a pig, ate feces of a human being or drank wine until drunk, it becomes Haram to eat that animal

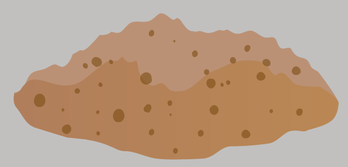
HARAM NON-ANIMAL PRODUCTS

EVERY NAJIS THING

ANYTHING THAT WOULD SERIOUSLY HARM THE EATER

THE WOMAN'S MILK IS HARAM FOR ANYONE EXCEPT INFANTS

MUD, SOIL AND SAND



Except the soil of the grave of Imam Hussain (pbuh) if used for cure

BEER, WINE, ALL INTOXICANTS & BOILED GRAPE JUICE IF IT HAS NOT BEEN REDUCED BY 2/3

It is also Haram to eat food at the same table where others are consuming alcohol
